

Information for Social Change Number 24 Winter 2006-2007

Special Issue on Libraries & Information in World Social Forum context

"In fact, the biggest challenge for the organizers of the World Social Forum does not consist in defining new and better contents that could lead to even more concrete proposals, but to guarantee the continuity of the form the Forum was given – a case in which the means are determinant for the aim to be reached.
(Chico Whitaker)

CONTENTS	Page No.
Editorial: Welcoming people power on the occasion of the World Social Forum (Shiraz Durrani)	1
Introduction: Waiting On The World To Change (Mikael Bök)	4
Politics of information: reality & vision	8
Never be Silent. Three questions from BiS to Shiraz Durrani	9
Mikael Bök: 2015. The Public Library as a Political Category	16
World Social Forum	34
The World According to Chico (The Right Livelihood Award 2006)	35
Social Movements Set to Assert Their Presence at WSF Nairobi 2007 (Oloo Onyango)	42
From Event to Process (Martí Olivella and Nicolas Haeringer)	47
Further readings on the World Social Forum	53
World Public Finances	56
The Secret Making a Joke out of Development Efforts (Emma Lochery)	57
New for 2007! (Advertisement)	63
It's poor people's money that makes the wealthy rich (Francine Mestrum)	64
Document: World Public Finances Concept Paper (Matti Kohonen)	68
Further readings on World Public Finances	76

World Public Library	78
Mumbai, January 2004	78
Document: Democratisation of Information with a focus on libraries - A report from two workshops (Mikael Bök)	79
Libraries: Open Spaces (Kay Raseroka)	84
Bamako Experiences, January-February 2006	88
Document: The Role of the Library in the WSF Process (Proceedings by Kingsley Oghojafor)	89
On The Library Situation in Mali (Mamadou Keita)	95
The Spirit of (West) African Libraries (Mikael Bök)	98
Training the Trainers Workshop, 2006	108
Document: Proposal for a training of trainers workshop for librarians on the WSF at Nairobi Safari Club (Esther Obachi)	109
Document: Day to day reports about the Training of the Trainers (Jane Sang & Fred Kachero)	111
The Management of the WSF Information (Esther Obachi)	122
How to Share Information and Ideas Worldwide Completely Free Using the New Information Wonder Called Blogs (Kingsley Oghojafor)	130
Preparing for Nairobi WSF, January 2007	139
Workshop on documenting the World Social Forum (WSF) - East African School of Library and Information Science 12th-14th December 2006 (Joan Okune)	140
The Khanya College Resource Centre – education and information for liberation and social change (Andi Kaiser)	147
On “diffusion” and making distinctions (Alan Story)	151
A comment on Copyrights, Author's Rights and Fair Use (Mikael Bök)	157
Document: Unlocking the Global Information Fortress (WSF activity info)	159
Document: Documenting of the WSF Information (WSF activity info)	161
Further Reading	162
Equality & Social Justice	163
The immigrant and "Britishness" in Britain (Ronald Elly Wanda)	164